OFFICE OF SECURITY DIRECTIVE NO. 64-6

FOR : Deputy Directors, Division and Staff Chiefs

SUBJECT: Overseas Selection Panel

1. Effective 1 July 1964 the Overseas Selection Panel will be reconstituted so that membership on the Panel will consist of the individuals occupying the following positions:

ADD(PPS), Chairman
ADD(IOS), Member
Deputy Chief, A&TS, Member
The most recent chiefs of the Regional Security Officers in Europe and FE who are now stationed at Headquarters will also be members
Secretariat - to be provided by A&TS

2. The presence of the most recent returnees from the Regional Security Officers in the FE and Europe will enable the Panel to have timely guidance on the nature of the job requirements and the type of person most suited for the position.

3. It is essential that information on requirements and job descriptions for vacancies and replacements in the overseas positions be furnished to the Overseas Selection Panel in sufficient time to permit Headquarters to consult by correspondence with the present Senior Security Officers in the area involved, if considered necessary. The Panel can then consider all replacements on a timely basis and submit their recommendations to the Career Board in sufficient time to allow for full scale training of the people selected for the overseas assignment. The Panel will meet on such other occasions as deemed necessary.
